The Toledo Zoo's Frozentoesen: Dig the Cool

Toledo, Ohio—Some folks think of January and February as the “dead” of winter, but Frozentoesen, The Toledo Zoo’s celebration of all things winter, proves there’s a life in the season yet! With half-price admission throughout January and February, plus Cabin Fever Feeds, live entertainment and the fun of The Toledo Zoo, Frozentoesen is one amazing opportunity to “dig the cool.”

Presented by Mercy Children’s Hospital, Frozentoesen features Cabin Fever Feeds each weekend, where you’ll have a chance to watch some of your favorite Zoo animals chow down. Plus you’ll see ice-carving demonstrations each Saturday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and weekends might feature anything from a puppet show or magic show to a performance by the Toledo School for the Arts’ Afro-Caribbean Dance and Drums group and Glass City Steel Band! Visit The Toledo Zoo’s website, www.toledozoo.org, for a complete schedule of activities.

In addition to half-price admission in January and February, the Zoo will also offer free admission to Lucas County residents from Saturday, January 16 to Monday, January 18. Your family will enjoy the full slate of Frozentoesen activities, and visitors will also receive special coupons offering further discounts to Lucas County residents throughout the year. The Toledo Zoo will offer a similar Lucas County Appreciation Weekend over President’s Day weekend in February.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.
