FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 14, 2009

Frozentoesen Continues in February

Toledo, Ohio—Don't let the winter weather bring you down—come "Dig the Cool" at Frozentoesen! Continuing throughout February, Frozentoesen is The Toledo Zoo's celebration of all things winter. With half-price admission, ice-carving demonstrations and a slate of cool activities and performances, it's sure to give you a warm feeling to last until spring.

The family favorites that Frozentoesen features continue through February. On Saturdays, ice carving demonstrations bring frosty fun to the Zoo's Main Plaza. Each Saturday and Sunday, Cabin Fever Feeds give visitors a chance to see some of their favorite animals dig into some tasty treats. Plus, there's some great live entertainment going on in the Zoo's Indoor Theatre, from jazz to pop to ballet! Check www.toledozoo.org for a complete schedule of performances. Frozentoesen is presented by St. Vincent Mercy Children's Hospital.

In addition, The Toledo Zoo will offer free admission to all Lucas County residents the weekend of Saturday, February 14 to Monday (President's Day), February 16. It's the Zoo's way of saying thanks for the ongoing support that the voters of Lucas County have shown over the years. This free weekend offers all the fun of Frozentoesen, plus coupons for special discounts on future visits to the Zoo. ID showing proof of Lucas County residency is required.

Visitors can also stop by the Zoo's North Star Trading Post® to see a painting created by Renee the elephant. They can also enter to win the artwork as part of a raffle to benefit elephant conservation. Tickets are $1 each or ten for $5, and tickets are available all through Frozentoesen. The winner will be announced on Monday, March 2.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.

The Toledo Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA). Look for the AZA logo whenever you visit a zoo or aquarium as your assurance that you are supporting a facility dedicated to providing excellent care for animals, a great experience for you, and a better future for all living things. With its more than 200 accredited members, AZA is building North America's largest wildlife conservation movement.
