The Ohio Zoo Experience Offers Great Values for Zoo Members

Toledo, Ohio—With economic concerns on the minds of most people, families throughout Ohio are expected to remain close to home this summer. Fortunately, Ohio zoos enable families to encounter a world of wonder without leaving the Buckeye State, and the new Ohio Zoo Experience program makes discovering (or rediscovering) the Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Toledo Zoos even easier!

Ohio Zoos are already a great value, and zoo memberships can pay for themselves in just two visits. Plus, memberships to any of the five Ohio Zoos receive free or discounted admission to the other four. In addition, each zoo is partnered with hotels in the area, so members can receive additional discounts that can make their journey even more economical.

To learn more about the Ohio Zoo Experience program and discover all the great reasons to visit The Toledo Zoo throughout the summer, visit www.toledozoo.org. The Ohio Zoo Experience starts Friday, May 22 and extends through Labor Day, Monday, September 7.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.

The Toledo Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA). Look for the AZA logo whenever you visit a zoo or aquarium as your assurance that you are supporting a facility dedicated to providing excellent care for animals, a great experience for you, and a better future for all living things. With its more than 200 accredited members, AZA is building North America's largest wildlife conservation movement.
