The Toledo Zoo's Frozentoesen Winter Weekends Return

Toledo, Ohio—There's always something happening at The Toledo Zoo, and wintertime means Frozentoesen Winter Weekends! With half-price admission throughout January and February, plus tons of activities, performances and special feeding and enrichment demonstrations, Frozentoesen Winter Weekends are the cure for your family's cabin fever!

Presented by Mercy Children's Hospital, Frozentoesen features Cabin Fever Feeds each weekend, where you'll have a chance to watch some of your favorite Zoo animals chow down. Plus you'll see ice-carving demonstrations each Saturday at 11 a.m., and weekends in January will feature some terrific activities and performances, including the NASA Challenger Learning Center (January 15), puppeteer Joyce Davis (January 15 and 16), magician Chris Clark (January 22 and 23), and two groups from the Toledo School for the Arts—the Urban Jazz Collective (January 29) and the Afro-Caribbean Dance and Drums (January 30). A complete schedule of events can be found at [www.toledo zoo.org/winterfun](http://www.toledo zoo.org/winterfun).

In addition to half-price admission in January and February, the Zoo will also offer free admission to Lucas County residents from Saturday, January 15 to Monday, January 17. Your family will enjoy the full slate of Frozentoesen activities, and visitors will also receive special coupons offering further discounts to Lucas County residents throughout the year. The Toledo Zoo will offer a similar Lucas County Appreciation Weekend over President's Day weekend in February.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit [www.toledo zoo.org](http://www.toledo zoo.org) or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon.
